We try to gather the impressions of times of frustration and change which have led us to a greater understanding of our abilities as individuals. In leaving we see a school still fragmented in its direction but striving to provide a stimulus for personal growth.

Care, risk some of yourself with others and keep a sense of community consciousness. You might be hurt but you will feel deeply and your sensitivity will make you a better person. In living to the fullest you are aware of more feelings than before, perhaps these will lead you to questions that will open more doors.

Four years have taught us the importance of unity and honesty, and this, if nothing else is the testament that remains. There are beginnings of new ideas to be built, there is more beauty to be discovered. So we leave, burning no bridges and answering no questions, our only hope being that you keep alive the vital, open process of growth of which we are all a part.

The Senior Class

Dear Ladies of the Class of 1973,

It seems hardly possible that the time to say "goodbye" to another class is here. How little time there is remaining to be together. How many of you Linda and I wish we knew better. How many things we want to do and how many things we want to say to you and hear from you must go undone, unsaid and unheard.

The year has been turbulent and constructive. Knowing that our school was to remain Garrison Forest and at its present site gave us all time to look at ourselves more critically and thoroughly. Many basic questions, values, procedures and beliefs were examined. Some were changed, some not. Some were strengthened, some not. Some of us were personally changed, some not. While, at times difficult and even painful, such a self-examination was necessary and timely and, above all else, profitable.

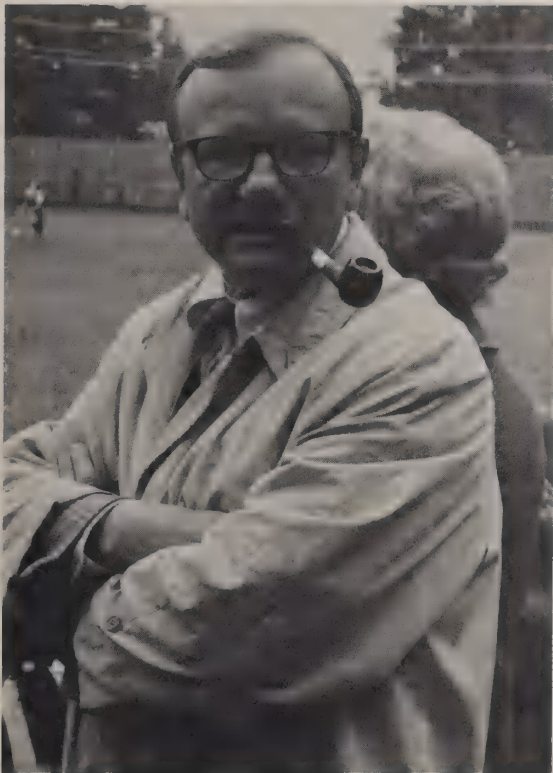

It is our fondest hope that through the hours of conversation, discussion and evaluation, our school has emerged a stronger one than when the year began. We are encouraged by the true concern about her so many of you have demonstrated. Well can we all be proud of "daughters" such as you.

And so, goodbye. Take with you what we had to give and use it well. We will live with and continue to learn from so much of you that is left with us.

Affectionately,

Lawrence L. Hlavacek

Dedication

TO THE BAKERS

We are not turning away, only moving on with the strength of your friendship, your optimism, your hope, in a world that is too often cold, impersonal, and lonely.

Many talk of love, concern, sharing, growing, but you are these things. We will leave you and we are sad but we will never forget.

the lesson of the moth i was talking to a moth the other evening he was trying to break into an electric light bulb and fry himself on the wires why do you fellows pull this stunt i asked him because it is the conventional thing for moths or why if that had been an uncovered candle instead of an electric light bulb you would now be a small unsightly cinder have you no sense plenty of it he answered but at times we get tired of using it we get bored with the routine and crave beauty and excitement fire is beautiful and we know that if we get too close it will kill us but what does that matter it is better to be happy for a moment and be burned up with beauty than to live a long time and be bored all the while so we wad all our life up into one little roll and then we shoot the roll that is what life is for it is better to be a part of beauty for one instant and then cease to exist than to exist forever and never be a part of beauty our attitude toward life is come easy go easy we are like human beings used to be before they became too civilized to enjoy themselves and before i could argue him out of his philosophy he went and immolated himself on a patent cigar lighter i do not agree with him myself i would rather have half the happiness and twice the longevity but at the same time i wish there was something i wanted as badly as he wanted to fry himself

If our friendship depends on things like space and time, then when we've finally overcome space and time we've destroyed our own brotherhood. But overcome space and all we have left is Here. When a person does not know with any inner conviction what he wants or what he feels; when he becomes aware of the fact that the desires and goals he has always followed no longer bring him any security; his natural reaction is to look around for other people. They, he hopes, will give him some sense of direction or at least some comfort in the knowledge that he is not alone in his fright.

Twirling your blue skirts, travelling the sword Under the towers of your seminary, Go listen to your teachers old and contrary Without believing a word.

Tie the white fillets then about your hair And think no more of what will come to pass Than bluebirds that go walking on the grass And chattering on the air.

*Practice your beauty, blue girls, before it fail;
And I will try with my loud lips and publish Beauty which all our powers shall never establish,
It is so frail.*

For I could tell you a story which is true: I know a lady with a terrible tongue, Blear eyes fallen from blue, All her perfections tarnished — yet it is not long Since she was lovelier than any of you.

"Top Hat"

Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Edward Everett Horton. Music by Irving Berlin.

One of the fastest-moving and most popular of the Astaire-Rogers series of musical comedies. The story, which is set in Venice, Italy, centers around the effort of an American dancer to gain the attentions of a pretty society girl. Irving Berlin's top hits "Cheek to Cheek" and "The Piccolino" are included in the score.

PROFIT — POWER FOR AMERICA'S PROGRESS

For Nearly Two Centuries America's Investment Firms Have Provided Effective Assistance in Placing Capital Where it Can Produce the Technical, Scientific, Educational and Social Improvements that America Wants.

The challenges facing American industry in the coming years include the demands of the world's exploding population for more and better housing, education, transportation, communications, medical care and nutrition.

At Harris, Upham & Co. we are aware that the most profitable investment opportunities lie with those companies which are applying their stockholders' capital and retained profits most efficiently for the service of their customers, our country, and in many cases the world.

Dear Priscilla,
Whoa, the end is coming fast I don't know what to do. Things moved so quickly this year that I wasn't able to spend half as much time with you as I wanted to. I don't want you to go!
But so now you're off to ~~the~~ brighter days. Priscilla you've done it! You've graduated as a full-fledged G.F.S. girl (let's hope the rest of us are as lucky.) Next year will be easier for you + Josh - I know it, so when the wedding rolls around (and don't write me either to try to tell me you and Josh have broken the relationship for good - it won't work.) you'll have to send me an invitation. I definitely think you both should have a ~~break~~ ^{Compliments of} wedding, your mother in her cowboy hat, Tina in her shoes, I can see it now - and you and Josh ^{a friend} in your matching Grateful Dead t-shirts. Your honeymoon will be in the hotel were the Grateful Dead spent the night, eating dinner at the table where the set and sleeping on Jerry Garcia's slide guitar - it'll be a great life. But seriously, no matter where life leads you remember us here and now, loving and caring for you always. Please take care of yourself, you're too good -

I love you,
Dory

Dear Priscilla,

For every star that falls to earth a new one glows,

For every dream that fades away a new one grows,

Heavy's the heart that has to turn and say goodbye,

But as we love so do we learn, I'll say goodbye,

Because another road is calling I'll say goodbye . . .

Little Boxes

*Little boxes, on the hillside, Little boxes made of ticky-tacky, Little boxes, little boxes, little boxes all the same.
There are green ones, there are pink ones,
And blue ones and yellow ones,
And they're all made out of ticky-tacky*

*And they're all just the same.
And the people in the houses
All went to the university Where they were put in boxes and they came out all the same.
There are doctors, there are lawyers,
And business executives,
And they're all made out
of ticky-tacky,
And they all look just the
same.*

*And they all play on the golf course,
And drink their martinis dry,
And they all have pretty children, and the children go to school, And the children go to summer camp
And then to university, Where they are put in boxes,
And they all look just the
same.*
